

The Department of Cognitive Psychology at the Institute of Psychology of the Eötvös Loránd University is organizing its annual student symposium. The symposium has been renamed to "Work in Progress" and its main goal is to provide a forum for students in the field of cognitive science to present their research to a wider audience of peers as well as receive feedback on their work.

Participation is open for any student who has not yet received their PhD degree. The topic of the presented research must be cognitive, however, pilot studies and research plans are also welcome besides completed studies. The presentations should be in English. A participant can choose to present their work in Hungarian at end of the event.

Date and time: 19th December, 2014 (Friday), starting at 12 o'clock
Place: ELTE-PPK, Institute of Psychology, Izabella utca 46, Révész Géza room (room 301)

The presentations should be 10 minutes long in the case of completed studies and 5 minutes long in the case of a pilot study or a research plan. There is no time limit for the discussion.

If you would like to participate, please send us a title and a maximum 150-word abstract through the online registration form which can be found here: https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1rG6U\_Xz8lwPm\_llwmeslWu9OCUwGOOCuG-cg7ZK\_sc/viewform?usp=send\_form

Deadline: 12th December, 2014 (Friday), 23:59

The final schedule of the event will be available after the deadline.

