

Dear Colleague,

It is a pleasure to invite you to the 2nd Pécs Workshop on Developmental and Cognitive Psychology. The conference is organized by the Institute of Psychology, University of Pécs, Hungary on November 10-11, 2016.

The focus of the workshop is to bring researchers and students together to share their current interests, present ongoing research, and discuss the main topics of their respective fields. After last year's success, we wanted to reach out to an even greater audience, hence, the main language of the conference will be Hungarian and English.

Keynote speakers:
