

CONFERENCE ANNOUNCEMENT and CALL FOR PAPERS
Toward a Science of Consciousness 2007:
Brain, Embodiment, Experience

Budapest, Hungary, July 23–26, 2007

Organized by the Hungarian Cognitive Science Foundation
Partially sponsored by the Center for Consciousness Studies at the University of Arizona, Tucson, Arizona and the Budapest Semester in Cognitive Science, Budapest, as well as other organizations

Venue: Roland Eotvos University (ELTE), Faculty of Science, Budapest
Chair of local organizing committee: George Kampis gk@hps.elte.hu

Conference Website: www.tsc2007.org (submissions from October 15)
An abstract (talk or poster) of 200-500 words should be submitted at the Website.

Abstract submission deadline: October 15, 2006 – January 15, 2007
Early registration: January 15–April 15, 2007

Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

- Neural Mechanisms and Correlates of Consciousness (NCC)
- Embodiment and Materialism
- Phenomenology and Experience
- Molecular Mechanisms of Consciousness
- Phenomenal Concepts
- Consciousness and Language
- Quantum Mechanical Approaches
- Machine Consciousness
- Externalism and Theory of Mind

Invited Speakers (confirmed) include:

Karl Pribram, Rodolfo Llinas, Walter Freeman, Petra Stoerig and others

Organizing Committee

George Kampis (Chair, ELTE)
Katalin Mund (Coordinator, ELTE)
Gabor Forrai (U. Miskolc)
Zoltan Jakab (TU Budapest)
Adam Miklosi (ELTE)
Janos Tozser (ELTE)
assistants: Levente Moro (U. Turku), Peter Fazekas (KCL London)

International Program Committee

Ivan Havel (Chair, Prague)
John Bickle (Cincinnati)
Axel Cleeremans (Brussels)
Shaun Gallagher (Orlando)
Joseph Goguen (San Diego) †
Stuart Hameroff (Tucson)
Juraj Hvorecky (Prague)
Howard Robinson (Budapest)
Andreas Roepstorff (Aarhus)
Maxim Stamenov (Sofia)
Dan Zahavi (Kopenhagen)
Jordan Zlatev (Lund)

Inquiries: office@makog.hu