

The University of Guelph presents:

ZENON PYLYSHYN CONFERENCE

April 29 - May 1 2005

Philosophy, Computing and Information Science, and the Graduate Program in Applied Cognitive Science (Psychology) at the University of Guelph, Ontario, Canada are sponsoring an international, interdisciplinary conference to honour the 20th Anniversary of the publication of Zenon Pylyshyn's classic work in the foundations of cognitive science, Computation and Cognition. Professor Pylyshyn will give the keynote address.

Speakers Include:

Austen Clark, Melvyn Goodale, John Bickle, Susan Carey, Brian Cantwell-Smith, Michael Dawson, Stevan Harnad, Charles Reiss, Brian Scholl, Claudia Uller.

Registration:

Registration is $40 dollars (CAN), no fee for students. There is also a contributed poster session.

For more information, visit us online at:

www.zencon.ca